RUN ON HELLO GIRL

Telephone Office Receives 400 Calls in Three Minutes.

"Hello, central, where's the fire?" This question to the operator at the central office of the Missouri and Kansas Telephone company is propounded from 40 to 500 times every time there is a fire, and if the operator doesn't answer the ring promptly, the gruff talk always comes. "Hello, central, what's the matter? Why don't you answer me?" If the person seeking fire information would stop to consider that through almost every other phone in the city comes the same question, they would realize their anger to some extent. When asking central where a fire is the person should remember that everybody else wants the same information at the same time.

Mr. Dugan of the telephone company, remarked to a reporter for the Eagle yesterday: "Last night, when the fire company turned out I happened to be at central office and I estimate that there were at least 400 drops fell in three minutes. Everybody wanted to know from the operator where the fire was, and as near as possible she tried to accommodate them all, but of course, a half dozen operators could not answer all in one call at that length of time, and as a result some of them got mad. When asking central where a fire is the person should remember that everybody else wants the same information at the same time."

A Glimpse of the Beyond

"It seems like a glimpse of the beyond to feel strong and well," are words that should bring every suffering woman to think of her own condition. Pain and misery had made such inroads on Mrs. Smith's strength, that she was about discouraged, when she was rescued by Wine of Cardui. The other remedies she tried could not permanently relieve the distresses of painful menstruation, and falling of the womb. They could not assuage the racking pain that shot through her whole body, and made her life a burden. But she found quick, perfect relief in Wine of Cardui. Thousands of women are in the same condition as Mrs. Smith. But will relieve every such sufferer and will bring permanent cure with the relief. By taking this simple remedy, it is within your power to be a perfectly well woman. Procure a dollar bottle from your druggist and treat yourself in the privacy of your home. Remember Wine of Cardui is the remedy that brings relief, not substitutes that unscrupulous druggists sometimes offer.

I have been a great sufferer all my life from weak nerves and all the ills women are heir to. Doctors would give me medicine that would relieve me temporarily, but as soon as I would stop I was as bad as ever. I tried everything that promised relief with the same result and became discouraged, but my husband prevailed on me to try your Wine of Cardui. I began to improve at once, every dose making me feel better. I have used two bottles and the result is wonderful. I have gained twenty-five pounds, and have more color in my cheeks than I ever had before. I cannot thank you enough, for it seems like a glimpse of the beyond to feel strong and well. Mrs. C. H. SMITH.
